

Indigita launched the French version of its inApp cross-border and product/tax suitability controls mobile platform

Geneva, 16 April 2021 – Swiss regtech company launched a French-language version of its successful inApp solution. The web-based application allows French-speaking financial professionals to quickly look up and access crucial information in their primary language.

The newly launched French version of Indigita's inApp solution provides relationship managers, compliance officers, operational tax managers, portfolio managers and wealth planners with instant, context-specific regulatory and tax suitability guidance on the go and on any device. The application features the same proven and recently enhanced feature set as the English version.

InApp is a web-based solution that draws on the leading regulatory knowledge contained in the Country Manuals published by BRP Bizzozero & Partners SA and BRP Tax SA. The application covers more than 185 jurisdictions, distinguishes between different client relationship scenarios and is able to provide advice even for complex client accounts. InApp is hosted on a secure Swiss cloud infrastructure.

Indigita CEO Achille Deodato said: "The launch of a French-language version of our popular inApp solution directly supports Indigita's ambition to make access to leading regulatory and cross-border knowledge as easy and effortless as possible. Allowing French-speaking professionals to look up advice in their primary language will facilitate further handling complex client situations in a challenging regulatory environment."

InApp is available in English and French as of now and forms part of Indigita's offering of digital cross-border and compliance solutions.
